Vera's wedding dresses are always simple, with limited motifs to preserve the clarity of her vision and avoid distracting from the wearer, but every creation is a glorious ballet of gorgeous materials, such as silk, lace, and satin, inspired by the high fashion of France and complemented by a modern American style. All are made by hand in limited quantities to maintain their exclusivity and keep their value intact, because the brand is aimed at the elite. The primary offerings are superb, flowing wedding dresses and luxurious cocktail dresses that embody the fairy-tale fantasies of any girl who wears them.
