In the 16th minute of the match, Duc Chinh tested the opponent's goal with a flick of the ball, but his shot was tipped past the post by the Indonesian goalkeeper. The game remained a draw until the 39th minute when Doan Van Hau's header from a powerful free kick buried the ball at the back of the net before the opposition could react.

In the 59th minute, captain Do Hung Dung took a straight shot from outside the penalty area that even the diving keeper could not save. The score remained 2-0 until the 73rd minute, when an alert Doan Van Hau volleyed a tight-angled rebound across the face of the goal into the far corner of the net, scoring Vietnam's third goal.
